

Adán Paredes Barrera (La Concepción, Veracruz, México)

Bachelor in Visual Arts with studies on Visual Communication design by the Universidad Veracruzana in Xalapa, Veracruz, Mexico. On 2007, he started designing posters. Since then, he has had a constant and outstanding participation in poster contests, biennials and triennials. His work has been selected, awarded and exposed in Mexico, Macedonia, Serbia, China, Russia, Bolivia, Czech Republic, Ukraine, Ecuador, Korea, Italy and Slovakia. On 2013, he received the ICOGRADA Special Award in the Taipei Design Award. He has organized poster expositions, imparted workshops and given conferences in some Mexican cities. He was member of the pre-selection committee of the STRELKA International design biennial 2016 in Russia. In 2018, he was a jury member in The Second NEZAREH Festival of Arts and Culture in the sculpture and graphic design categories, in Iran; he was also jury member in The 4th Block Hackaton in Kharkov, Ukraine. Honorary member of China Europe International Design Culture Association "CEIDA" (June 2020-2022) and of the Association of Ghraphig Designers "The 4th Block" based in Kharkiv, Ukraine.